

I wish to make notice of my objection to Sinclair Broadcasting's upcoming partisan Anti-John Kerry film. I don't know if there has ever been a better example of the need to break up large media monopolies that are using the public airwaves to effect government policy towards them. In the short term, the FCC should persuade Sinclair to give equal airtime to the Kerry Campaign for balance. Thank You.

Joseph Duclos
Germantown, MD